

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR CONSULTANCY SERVICE TO DEVELOP KEY MESSAGES FROM THE MASCULINITIES STUDY UNDER THE SEVEN THEMATIC AREAS OF THE JOINT ADVOCACY FOR SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AND RIGHTS (JAS) PROGRAMME IN UGANDA

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Center for Health, Human Rights and Development (CEHURD) undertook a national study covering 10 districts of Kampala, Wakiso, Buikwe, Lira, Mbarara, Isingiro, Gulu, Kamuli, Arua, and Mbale on the influence of masculinities on the realization of sexual and reproductive health and rights in Uganda in collaboration with the School of Women and Gender Studies and the School of Law of Makerere University in Uganda.

CEHURD now wishes to engage a consultant to develop key messages from the masculinities study under the seven thematic areas of the JAS programme. The seven thematic areas of the JAS programme include HIV/AIDs, Sex Work, Maternal Health, Gender and Women, Refugees and Sexual and Gender Minorities, Adolescent and young people, access to medicine and commodities.

2.0 BACKGROUND

CEHURD with support from Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA) is undertaking a four-year programme “The Joint Advocacy for Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights in Uganda (JAS)” which is aimed at building a progressive sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR) advocacy movement. Anchored in this is an objective of generating evidence-based knowledge and information on key issues that influence sexual and reproductive health and rights in Uganda. One of the main activities under this objective was to undertake a national study on Masculinities and SRHR in Uganda, whose findings would inform the SRHR issues to be addressed by the JAS Programme.

In March 2020, the School of Women and Gender Studies and the School of Law of Makerere University in Uganda collaborated with CEHURD in undertaking a National Study aimed at establishing the influence of Masculinities on Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights in Uganda.

The masculinity study was concluded in 2021 and CEHURD has since then realised a need to develop key messages from the study under the different thematic areas as highlighted which will then be translated into three different local languages to enable its dissemination country wide.

3.0. SCOPE OF WORK

The consultant will;

- a. Provide leadership, coordination and expertise to develop key messages from the masculinities study.
- b. Support the dissemination of the developed messages for translation.
- c. Compliance with ethical requirements and standards.
- d. Presentation of developed key messages to CEHURD for validation and approval

4.0 EXPECTED DELIVERABLES

- a. Seven (7) key messages developed and approved under each thematic area.

5.0 TIME FRAME

It is expected that the assignment will last for 15 Calendar days upon award of contract.

6.0 APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- A technical and financial proposal with a detailed response to the expression of interest, with a specific focus on addressing the scope of work.
- Sample of previous works that relate to the subject at hand.
- Initial work plan based on the methodology outlined, and an indication of availability
- CV including a minimum of 3 traceable, recent and relevant references to this task.

Interested parties should send their application documents to info@cehurd.org and copy atwiine@cehurd.org by, Tuesday 17th May 2022