CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST TO CONDUCT AN ASSESSMENT ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE UNIVERSAL PERIODIC REVIEW RECOMMENDATION ON GBV AND HEALTH AS MADE TO UGANDA DURING THE REVIEW OF UGANDAS HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD

1. INTRODUCTION

Center for Health Human Rights and Development (CEHURD) is a non-profit, research and advocacy organization which is pioneering the justiciability of the right to health. Founded in 2010, CEHURD has moved from the margins to the center stage of advancing social justice and right in health systems in Uganda, East African Region, pan-African and Globally. Among the global human rights processes that CEHURD has been involved in has been the Universal Periodic Review, through which the country's human rights record is reviewed other peers. During the review process, Uganda accepted a number of recommendations aimed at improving Uganda Human Rights record. Close to two years down the road it is important to assess the progress made in the implementation of recommendations received by the country.

CEHURD now wishes to engage a consultant to conduct an assessment on the implementation of the recommendation that were made to and accepted by Uganda.

2.0 BACKGROUND

The Universal Periodic Review is a unique process that involves a periodic review of the human rights records of all 193 UN Member States. Since its first meeting was held in April 2008, all 193 UN member States have been reviewed twice within the first and second UPR cycles. During the third UPR cycle, States once again spelled out steps they have taken to implement recommendations posed during their previous reviews, which they committed to follow-up on and highlight recent human rights developments in the country.

Uganda's human rights record was examined by the UN Human Rights Council's Universal Periodic Review (UPR) Working Group for the third time on Thursday, 27 January 2022. The documents on which the review was based are 1) national report - information provided by the State under review; 2) information contained in the reports of independent human rights experts and groups, known as the Special Procedures, human rights treaty bodies, and other UN entities; 3) information provided by other stakeholders including national human rights institutions, regional organizations and civil society groups.
